

From Singapore to the World: STARRYBLU Shines at Singapore FinTech Festival 2025

The Singapore FinTech Festival (SFF) 2025, jointly organized by the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS), the Global Finance & Technology Network (GFTN), and Constellar, officially kicks off at the Singapore EXPO from November 12 to 14.

As the world's largest FinTech event, the Singapore FinTech Festival 2025 centers around the theme "Shaping the Next Decade of Growth." Singapore-headquartered FinTech firm Wotransfer Pte. Ltd. has been invited to showcase its innovations at Booth 3E13, Hall 3.

WOTRANSFER has established itself as one of the leading FinTech enterprises, known for its popular cross-border remittance brand Panda Remit, which now serves millions of users worldwide and has successfully completed multiple rounds of fundraising with participation from top-tier global investors and financial institutions.

At SFF 2025, WOTRANSFER is unveiling Starryblu, a new-generation global financial platform designed to connect Singapore with the world — and the world with Singapore. The platform integrates cross-border payments and financial services into one seamless ecosystem.

Starryblu enables users to open a multi-currency global account instantly and free of charge, offering one account that works across borders. Whether for payment or remittance, Starryblu provides competitive exchange rates, supports 210+ countries and regions, and allows mobile or card payments with zero hidden fees. Users also enjoy monthly 0-fee withdrawal quotas, catering to high-frequency international transactions.

Licensed as a Major Payment Institution (MPI:PS20200501) under MAS, Starryblu also holds dozens of financial licenses across other countries and regions. It employs bank-grade security protocols and AI-powered risk control systems, operating 24/7 to safeguard global users' funds.
