14-NOVEMBER 2020

So Inc. to host Japan's first World FinTech Festival (WFF) from 7-8 December 2020 in Tokyo – as part of Singapore FinTech Festival (SFF) to be held from 7-11 December 2020

Tokyo, Japan - 14 November 2020 – So Inc. announced that the World FinTech Festival (WFF) in Tokyo will be held on 7-8 December 2020 for the first time as part of the Singapore FinTech Festival (SFF) 2020. So Inc. has been selected as the Global Satellite Event partner of SFF to host the WFF in Tokyo. WFF in Tokyo will be a by-invitation only digital event that will highlight sustainable FinTech content specific to Japan and feature other globally curated content from SFF 2020. The event will also provide attendees with exclusive networking access to industry thought leaders and sponsors of the WFF in Tokyo.

The SFF is the world's largest FinTech event organised by the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS). The fifth edition of SFF will run from 7 - 11 December 2020, featuring a unique hybrid format that combines a 24-hour online event platform with over 40 Global Satellite Events in FinTech hubs around the world. This year's SFF will bring together international thought leaders in finance, business, government, technology, and academia.

“So Inc. is excited to host the World FinTech Festival for the first time in Tokyo, Japan. We welcome you - pioneers, rising tech stars, thought leaders, and global investors to discuss emerging opportunities in Japan and the transformation of the financial landscape on Impact FinTech for sustainable growth and development, said Kiko Uehara, CEO at So Inc.”

Sopnendu Mohanty, Chief FinTech Officer of MAS, said, “As one of the world's leading financial centres, Tokyo is rapidly emerging as a FinTech hub in Asia – as it continues to innovate in areas such as blockchain and sustainable FinTech. In the spirit of promoting financial innovation at the Singapore FinTech Festival, we are pleased to announce this strategic partnership with So Inc. to amplify knowledge sharing and drive cross-border collaboration between Japan's FinTech ecosystem and the global community at SFF.”
